

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Evelyn Quade began recording precipitation data for the National Weather Service in 1955; and,

Whereas, Evelyn has meticulously maintained her observation site and provided quality data to the National Weather Service and the National Archives for over 47 years; and,

Whereas, Evelyn has braved blinding snowstorms, torrential rains, sub-zero temperatures, and extreme winds to provide accurate, timely, and comprehensive observations; and,

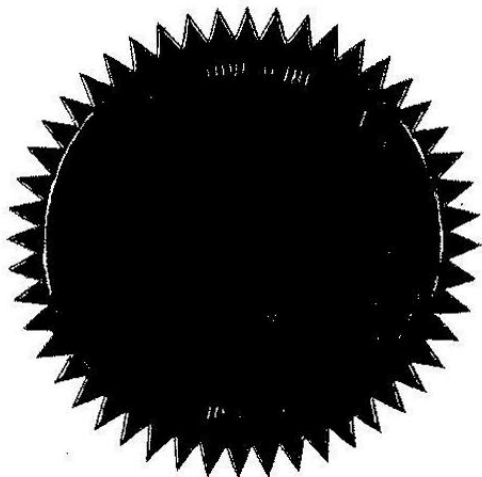

Whereas, Evelyn's dedication and attention to detail have significantly contributed to the accuracy of forecasts and the protection of life and property of the great people of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that, as Governor of the state of South Dakota, I congratulate Mrs. Quade for her outstanding accomplishments:

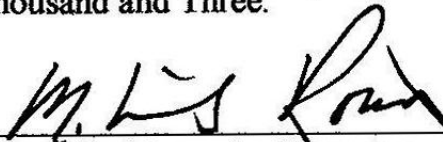

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 16, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in honoring her.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
